Dear Families,

I hope you all enjoyed the Cup Day holiday and backed the first winning female jockey Michelle Payne in The Cup. I didn’t!

We welcome the Anderson family to our school this week with Thomas (grade 5), Alyssa (prep) and Alexis (2016 prep).

If you missed yesterday’s assembly then you missed Nikki Williams delivering the speech she did at the Bass Coast Public Speaking Competition. It was fantastic and she spoke clearly and connected with me on how special her dog Marshmallow is. This is an excellent example of how ALL students should speak when given the opportunity at assembly. Nikki you were brilliant.

This week we have students visiting lots of places.

On Wednesday -

- Grade 5/6 students are representing the school at the Remembrance Day Ceremony at the San Remo Cenotaph at 10:45am parents are welcome to attend.
- Then they jump on a bus to Wonthaggi North PS for a Careers Expo
- Thursday is our 2016 Prep Information Evening in Mrs Wilson’s room at 6pm
- Friday is our first prep transition morning from 9-10am for our incoming 2016 preps.

It has came to my attention and the staff that there has been an increase in the use of inappropriate language being used in the playground this term. If this continues then parents will be contacted immediately. Unfortunately most of the language is being generated from social interactions after school and on the weekends.

PLEASE continue to be vigilant checking your son or daughter’s hair for head lice. We are organising another check in the next week or so.

Staff are busily assessing students and collating their results as well as planning all the traditional celebrations that term four brings.

I can’t wait for the P-2 PJ Party. Mr Steel may have his “gold PJ’s” but look out for Mrs Wilson and my PJ’s.

Thought of the Week:

Regards Sharyne
